

Congratulations GCPS Teachers of the Year!

Ms. Jen Worrell from Petsworth Elementary School was selected as the Division Teacher of the Year
She will represent the division in the Virginia (Mary V. Bicouvaris) Teacher of the Year program.

L to R: Jessica Lawson (Abingdon E.S.); Laura Longest (Achilles E.S.); Michelle Baker (Gloucester H.S.); Lyn Whitt (Gloucester H.S.); Jennifer Worrell (Petsworth E.S.); DeDe Driver (Peasley M.S.); Michelle Davis (Page M.S.); Linda Clements (Bethel E.S.) & Susan Henk (Botetourt E.S.)

The Gloucester County Public Schools Educational Foundation held its annual "Teacher of the Year" recognition dinner on Wed., May 7th to honor those teachers selected in each of the eight schools throughout the division as "Teacher of the Year."

Worrell, Davis and Baker were announced at the dinner as the elementary, middle and high school Division "Teachers of the Year." They each received $500 from the GCPS Educational Foundation, an engraved ring provided by Jostens, Inc. and an engraved plaque. Lawson, Longest, Whitt, Driver, Clements and Henk each received $300 and a certificate from the foundation. Each teacher's name was also added to the engraved Perpetual "Teacher of the Year" plaques provided by Bill Hudgins